

TeraPlast explores strategic opportunities for some of its business lines

The TeraPlast Board of Directors, in line with its commitment of increasing the TeraPlast Group's value, intends to start an exploration and assesment process of the potential strategic opportunities related to the thermal insulating panels and metallic roof tiles business lines which are at present managed by TeraSteel Romania, TeraSteel Serbia and Depaco – subsidiaries of the company (Steel division). The aim is to diversify the Group's equity base.

In accordance with the interest shown during the dialogue with potential investors, all elements regarding potential transactions will be defined, with TeraPlast obtaining all necessary corporate approvals and elaborating all legal matters needed, afterwards. Therefore, further reports will be published when and if necessary.

There is no assurance that this exploration and assesment process will result in a transaction.
